

Atlantean Inn

TRANQUILITY IN THE HEART OF THE VILLAGE

A warm and gracious welcome to you, from Atlantean! This lovely Tudor cottage was the personal residence of famed Bar Harbor architect Frederick Savage. Today, Heidi and Gary open wide Atlantean's doors and invite you to relax and enjoy the elegance and comfort of this splendid house.

You'll find no more tranquil, quiet locale so very close to the best restaurants, galleries, museums, and shops. On a peaceful lane between Main Street and the ocean lies this serene getaway, just around the corner from all that Bar Harbor Village has to offer.

The Inn's luxurious, delightfully appointed chamber rooms and spacious suites form the perfect setting for your Bar Harbor visit. All rooms have private baths; many feature fireplaces and whirlpools. Our spacious public rooms, gardens and convenient, well-stocked butler's pantry enhance your comfort and help enrich your experience. Come, enjoy, and give yourselves the Bar Harbor getaway you deserve.

Find us on a quiet side street...

11 ATLANTIC AVENUE, BAR HARBOR

A full, sumptuous breakfast awaits your rising each morning at Atlantean. Fresh baked yummys and delicious fruit appetizers set the stage for a new, creative and satisfying entrée daily. Our breakfasts are handcrafted from all vegetarian, organic (where possible), whole foods. You'll love the Apple Clafouti, the fabulous Vegetable Frittata, Vegetarian Sausage Strata, and all the other creations from Atlantean's kitchen.
